SOLELY FOR THE PURPOSES OF THIS MEDIATION, Plaintiff is represented by:

DORIS TRAUB, ESQUIRE
Traub & Traub
100 Church Street
New York, NY 10007- 2601
(212) 732-0208

This attorney has volunteered to participate in the Court's mediation project. If there is any conflict of interest, the attorney shall notify Natalie J. Sobchak, Senior Staff Attorney, in the Court's Pro Se Office immediately at (212) 805-0177. The attorney shall consult with plaintiff and shall attend the mediation when scheduled. If the case is not resolved through the mediation process, the attorney shall have no obligation to have any further involvement in the case. Under no circumstances shall the Court require the attorney to provide any further representation for any other part of the litigation.

The entire mediation process is confidential. The parties and the Mediator may not disclose information regarding the process, including settlement terms, to the Court or to third persons unless all parties otherwise agree. The identity of the mediator is not to be disclosed even to the Court. However, persons authorized by the Court to administer or evaluate the mediation program may have access to information necessary to so administer or evaluate the program and parties. Counsel and Mediators may respond to confidential inquiries or surveys by said persons authorized by the Court to administer or evaluate the mediation program.

The mediation process shall be treated as a compromise negotiation for purposes of the Federal Rules of Evidence and state rules of evidence. The Mediator is disqualified as a witness, consultant, attorney, or expert in any pending or future action relating to the dispute, including actions between persons not parties to the mediation process.

Any timetable set by the Court contained in a scheduling order or otherwise governing the completion of discovery, motion practice or trial date, etc., is to be strictly complied with and is in no way changed by the entry of the case into the Court's mediation program.

So Ordered.
